Tomorrow Needs Your Name

A VOICE IN MOTION

Between solitude and movement.

EKNAH creates cinematic music at the crossroads of alternative R&B, atmospheric electronic sound and African-inspired rhythms. Intimate vocals move through deep grooves, organic percussion and nocturnal synths — music for late nights, open skies and anyone still listening.

INTRO

Stay with me
Just breathe
Morning is coming

HOOK

Hold on till morning
Don't let the dark take your light
Hold on till morning
I'll stay awake through the night

VERSE 1

Night is leaning on the window
Your shadow barely moves
I'm searching for a little hope
In everything you do
I used to think that time was ours
Like rain would always fall
Now every second in this room
Feels heavier than all

PRE-CHORUS

If you can hear me, squeeze my hand
You don't have to say a word
I'll carry what you cannot hold
Until your voice is heard

CHORUS

Hold on till morning
Don't let the dark take your light
Hold on till morning
I'll stay awake through the night
Everything I kept inside
I will tell you, I won't hide
Hold on till morning
Come back to me with the light

I remember every doorway
You waited there for me
Every time I lost direction
You saw what I could be
I was busy chasing distance
While love was standing near
Now I'd trade the world I wanted
Just to keep you here

BRIDGE

Ẽ má lọ, stay a little longer
Your heart still knows the way
Ẽ má lọ, I can feel you breathing
Tomorrow needs your name

FINAL CHORUS

Hold on till morning
Don't let the dark take your light
Hold on till morning
I'll stay awake through the night
Every word I owe your heart
I will speak before we part
Hold on till morning
Come back to me with the light

OUTRO

Stay with me
Just breathe
Morning is coming
